

Incentives

Taylor has an array of incentives available for qualified projects

The community will work together to provide incentives to help new locations and business expansions in our community.

Projects are considered for incentives on a case by case basis evaluated based on job creation, capitol investment, wages, community impact, and other qualifying criteria. Please contact the Taylor EDC to begin your review of eligibility.